Who We Are

We are motivated by the simple idea of designing and building better homes. It's what makes us tick. Our team is driven, innovative, conscientious and inspired by great design. We're also eager to learn, listen and share great ideas. We love homes and we want to make them better.

Though your interests may lie in architecture, accounting, interior design, construction or sales, your enthusiasm for being the best at what you do is what counts the most. Our colleagues are also motivated by doing work to be proud of, ensuring Mosaic is a great place to work, and at all times, doing the right thing. These are important values that unite our team. Sound like you? If yes, you're likely a great fit here.

The Opportunity

The Analyst role is your entry point into the Real Estate Development Industry in a role designed to expose and grow your understanding of multiple facets of the business including land acquisitions, development, construction, financing, marketing and sales.

What We Offer

- A great professional development opportunity to grow your career within Real Estate;
- Regular exposure to the Mosaic senior leadership team who will oversee your mentorship;
- Inclusion in a program that is designed to provide you with an ideal real estate career foundation;
- A competitive package - pay, bonus, company paid benefits, tuition reimbursement and regular internal and external learning opportunities;
- An awesome culture – open spaces for collaboration, tons of fun social events to build relationships and of course, talented & passionate colleagues to work alongside with; and
- A team that lives our core values of doing the right thing, doing work to be proud of, being a great place to work, being the best, and being profitable.

What You Bring

- To start, you have a passion for designing and building better homes. You have a desire to be on a team that is the best at what they do and you are willing to go the distance in doing your part to help us hold this position;
- Second, you have a degree in Business, Urban Planning, Architecture, or Economics, along with some relevant work, volunteer or practical experience and are ready to kick your career into high gear;
- Third, you have an ability to thrive in an atmosphere of open and direct communication, debate, and creative brainstorming - you are driven and are proud of the work you do - yet lighthearted and fun;
- Finally, you have the drive, energy and determination to make things better. You embrace feedback and aren't afraid to have an opinion or make a suggestion.

Above all, we're looking for someone who works hard and genuinely cares about their job, their co-workers, and the people who buy the homes we build. Interested? Please apply on our website at <http://mosaichomes.com/join-the-team/>. We'll follow up if it looks like you may be a fit.
