Landa Global Properties Ltd.
Vice President, Construction
Vancouver

Landa Global is dedicated to setting a new standard of excellence in the creation of luxurious and refined communities in the beautiful city of Vancouver and beyond. Our passion is to elevate the way people live, and to this end Landa homes redefine luxury living through planning, architecture, and technological and design innovations. Landa projects are distinguished by prime, sought-after locations, as well as the ability to reflect the character and scale of the existing neighbourhood, while raising the bar for architectural elegance. Each building is custom designed specifically to meld with and enrich its choice location. Creating homes that celebrate a sophisticated lifestyle is our signature; developing landmark buildings that enhance their stunning natural surroundings is our legacy. Currently, Landa has over 10 exciting projects, primarily focused in downtown Vancouver (West End and Coal Harbour), valued at over $3bn.

Taylor Ryan is pleased to partner with Landa Global in their search for a Vice President of Construction. Reporting to the President, the VP Construction will be responsible for overseeing the construction of the company's projects across the Lower Mainland. As a key member of the executive team, you will manage the construction process from due diligence to completion, while sustaining the highest standards of quality and performance and ensuring that projects are delivered in a safe, timely, and profitable manner. You will establish, implement and monitor building timelines and programs, while seeking to improve efficiencies and processes. You will lead and develop in-house construction teams, as well as select, direct and collaborate with general contractors, architects, engineers and other consultants.

The ideal candidate will have a post-secondary degree or designation in construction management, business, engineering, project management or related discipline. You will have 15+ years of construction management experience with a general contractor and/or developer and a background in concrete high-rise construction. You possess a thorough and current knowledge of the BC Building Code and project management standards. You have established strong relationships with trades and industry associations and a proven ability to work collaboratively with interdisciplinary teams. You are diligent and proactive with strong leadership and communication skills and an ability to operate successfully in a dynamic and busy culture. You are a practical yet creative problem solver, resilient and are able to recover quickly from setbacks. The role will suit someone who is process-driven with exceptional standards, attention to detail and a proven track record of delivering multiple projects on time and on budget.

This is a fantastic opportunity for an experienced construction leader who is passionate about quality and great design and is looking to join a dynamic company with excellent growth potential.
