Senior Development Manager
Vancouver

Concert is an award-winning, Canadian-owned, real estate enterprise involved in developing rental apartments, condominium homes and senior's communities, acquiring and developing office, industrial and infrastructure properties, and in property management across Canada.

Across all lines of business, Concert is dedicated to exceeding the ordinary and this philosophy has contributed to an award-winning reputation across Canada. Concert's foundation is built on an unwavering commitment to the core values of integrity, service, and quality.

An opportunity now exists for a Senior Development Manager to join the Concert team. You will be responsible leading the execution of mixed-use development projects while partnering with other project team members including sales and marketing, construction, commercial leasing, property management, asset management, and finance teams. As an integral member of the team, you must exemplify the highest standards of honesty, integrity and ethics.

The ideal candidate will have experience in managing complex public consultation processes for various types of development projects and in successfully navigating municipal review and approval processes. You are a relationship-builder with excellent leadership capabilities, and are skilled at communicating, coordinating, and managing relationships with multiple stakeholders. You must be a problem solver and be able to create solutions to complex development issues.

The ideal candidate will possess at least 7 years of development management experience. You will demonstrate a detailed understanding of all aspects of the project design, development and approval process, and be capable of applying a professional development management approach to large complex projects.

This is a fantastic opportunity for an experienced professional looking to join a dynamic business with a significant development pipeline and the opportunity to work on large scale, complex projects. The opportunity for personal and professional growth exists for the right candidate.

We thank all applicants in advance, however only qualified candidates may be contacted.
