COVID-19 UPDATE

At this time, we would like to reassure our members that we are still open for business, during these unprecedented and challenging circumstances.

To comply with today's federal and provincial government directives to stay home and prevent the spread of COVID-19, all staff are working remotely and using technology to stay abreast of work assignments. All UDI committee meetings and other small gatherings will be transitioned to conference calls, webinars, or other technologies.

All scheduled events have been postponed until further notice.

Tickets purchased for events will be honoured for any rescheduled date. If you would prefer, we are able to offer a full refund. For more information, please contact George Koumbounis, p. 604-661-3010 or Yvonne Lo, p. 604-789-0898 or Andrea Nicholls p. 604-669-9585.

Further updates will be issued as we follow this evolving situation.

All of us at UDI are working together as Canadians and British Columbians to do what we can. We know we will get through this crisis.

In the meantime, please follow the appropriate prevention recommendations from our health authorities and help each other when possible.

We sincerely regret any inconvenience this may cause and thank you for your understanding.

Please feel free to contact me at AMcMullin@udi.org if you have any questions or concerns.

Thank you,
