Executive Search Partners

Our client, a leader in the commercial appraisal industry based in Vancouver is looking for an experienced commercial real estate appraiser. The organization is a full-service appraisal and consulting firm that specializes in valuations for property owners, lenders, mortgage brokers, investors and government agencies.

This role will play an integral part in the valuation and consulting process of the company's current client base while also working towards building your own client base. As a commercial property appraiser, your primary focus will be on performing detailed property inspections, conducting research for property data, preparing property estimation reports and consulting with other real estate professionals. You will have exposure to a wide range of asset classes including but not limited to industrial, retail, office, hotels, development projects (ranging from small scale to multi-phased communities), expropriation, etc.

The ideal candidate will have a minimum of 3 years' experience in conducting commercial property appraisals and have a bachelor's degree in a related field from a respected university. In addition, you will be suitable if you hold an AACI designation, have meticulous attention to detail and the ability to meet strict deadlines.

This is a fantastic opportunity to work for a well-known and ever-growing appraisal firm with a culture comprised of open-communication, teamwork and creativity.

To apply, please include "Commercial Real Estate Appraiser" in the subject line and forward your most up-to-date resume to Stephanie Gaydosh, stephanie@taylorryan.com.

We thank all applicants in advance for their interest, but only qualified candidates will be contacted.
